about the BRUEN family...

From Beverly Crifasi to all, December 1995

There are several of us who have BRUEN/BALL interests, so I will give you what I have on them. As far as I am concerned it is extremely speculative, because I have barely scratched the surface on it and not yet gone past secondary sources. I don't see an Esther BRUEN who married Timothy BALL in the BRUEN stuff I have, but that means nothing- these are really just my notes. Her will isn't in the NJ Archives for 1771-1780, but she's mentioned in his will in the 1751-60 volume. Do you have that? Charles Candee Baldwin's "The Baldwin Genealogy from 1500 to 1881" Cleveland, OH, 1881 indicated that he had obtained this Bruen information from George F. Tuttle of NYC; Baldwin said he had intended to publish all of the Bruen material, but the Baldwin Genealogy was too big, so he condensed it. (I'm sure there is more on this family at the NJ Historical Society, but I just haven't gotten to them yet. I will make a note of your Esther and see if I can find anything next time I go there. That will probably be later this month.) CC Baldwin includes "data" that proports to trace John BRUEN's line back several generations to Robert LE BRUEN. It's in the Baldwin Genealogy on pp. 840-843, and I quote:

ROBERT LE BRUEN, 1 the first of the family, appears in a grant of lands bearing date 1230, and had issue:

JOHN, 12 eldest son; m. 1st, Anne, sister of Sir John Done, who d. without issue; and he m. 2nd, Dorothy, dau. of Thomas Holford, of Holford. John 12 d. in 1587, and had a son JOHN, 13 bapt. in 1560, the eldest of thirteen ch., the father-in-law of John Baldwin of Milford.

John Bruen's life was published first in 1641, under the title:"The very Singular Life of John Bruen, Esq., of Bruen Stapleford, Cheshire, exhibiting a variety of Memorable and Exemplary Circumstances, which may be of Great Utility to all Persons, but Principally Intended as a Precedent of Piety and Charity for the Inhabitants of the County of Chester. By the Rev. William Hinde, Fellow of Queen's College, Oxford, and Preacher of God's Word at Bunberry, in the aforesaid County." It was republished at Chester in 1799, and in New York in 1857; and a Synopsis was published in Ormerod's "History of Chester." [CC Baldwin goes on for another couple of paragraphs of the wonders of John's character that I will be happy to snail mail to you if you want it. CCB also mentions John, 13's brothers Dutton, of Dutton and Thomas (who attended Oxford with John from 1574-1580) and his sister Catherine. John and Catharine's lives are in Christopher Morton's "Monuments of the Fathers and Reformers. London: 1706. 8 vo." And in case you were wondering- I do not have any of these books!] The genealogy continues on the next page [I added the gen#'s 14 and on]: JOHN,13 bapt. in 1560, d @ 1625 Bruen Stapleford, Cheshire, Eng m. 1st Elizabeth HARDWARE, who d. in 1596, [dau of Henry HARDWARE]; 2nd Anne Fox; and 3rd, Margaret ----. 16. Son, 14 name unknown

Obadiah BRUEN, 14 b. Dec. 25, 1606; m. Sarah _____; emigrated to New England. He was Representative in Massachusetts; after that, for fifteen years, Town Clerk of New London, Conn; one of the grantees in the Royal Charter of Connecticut. He was one of the associates in buying Newark and settled there. He had ch.:

[CCB concludes by quoting Tuttle to the effect that (naturally) the Bruen's are descended from the usual collection of famous royals- William the Conqueror; ancient kings of Scotland; Saxon kings of England; Alfred the Great; Hugh Capet; Robert, King of France; Charlemagne and Constantine. Anybody have the sources on all that? (Bev asked ingenuously!) Oh yes, I left out Pepin, the Old; b abt A.D. 560; King John and four or five Barons who signed the Magna Carta. This last if from "At the Sign of the Crest" by Hazel Kraft Eilers in Hobbies, The Magazine for Collectors, Sept. 1952, p. 156. The references she gives for Pepin and company are "The Encyclopedia of American Biography" and "The Ancestry of John Barber White", neither of which I have looked at. Meanwhile, back in the colonies, the Bruens were continuing to create descendants. Eilers adds a few details (e.g. Plymouth) but seems to have relied upon CCB's account from Tuttle:]

Obadiah BRUEN, 14 b. Dec. 25, 1606; m. Sarah _____; landed at Plymouth,

Mass., 1640-1. He first settled at Marshfield, Mass. He was admitted "freeman," 1642, selectman 1642 and for several years following. He was Representative in Massachusetts; after that, for fifteen years, Town Clerk of New London, Conn; one of the grantees in the Royal Charter of Connecticut. He was one of the associates in buying Newark and settled there. He had ch.:

1. John,15 b. June 2, 1646 m. Esther Lawrence, dau. of Deacon Richard Lawrence of New Haven, CT
2. Rebecca,15 m. Thomas Post of Norwich
3. Hannah,15 b. Jan. 9, 1644; m. [13 Oct 1653] John BALDWIN, Jr. of Milford [Beware of the confusions over John Baldwin Senior, Junior, John I, John II etc. It is argued- persuasively by some- that the John Baldwin Jr. of Newark was not the son of John Baldwin Senior of Milford although it is agreed that John Baldwin Senior of Milford did have a son named John Baldwin.

Mary BRUEN, 14 b June 14, 1622, Cheshire, Eng. (Obadiah's half sister) m. 13 Oct 1653 John BALDWIN b 24 Jun 1619. Mary BRUEN died 2 Sep 1670. She was John BALDWIN's second wife. His first wife was Mary CAMP. John BALDWIN and Mary CAMP had a son named John BALDWIN, b either 1640 in Milford, CT or 20 Mar 1648 also in Milford. This son is the very same John BALDWIN who married Hannah BRUEN, daughter of Obadiah BRUEN. I made a chart to show this, because I kept getting confused, what with the similar names, dates etc:

Note also: On p. 82 #3 above there is mentioned Phebe BRUEN daughter of Israel CANFIELD. I didn't notice- because I wasn't looking then- whether this Esther BRUEN who supposedly married Joseph BALDWIN was in the CCB Gen.- I don't own it- only some photocopied pages, but it is well indexed and I will search for her in it if you want. I know that book (and its supplement) are available on microfiche and also as reprints, although they have been on my "too expensive list".

Sorry I can't be of more assistance- I'm too new at this and have just not done that much with the BRUENs. I would be interested in and grateful for anything you find on them. BTW, I haven't looked for them at all in most of the NJ Archive books; what is mentioned above is as far as I have gotten. Regards- Bev Crifasi, PO Box 122, Caldwell, NJ 07006-0122

Excerpt from Paulding County, Ohio Atlas (written after 1885)
Jonathan L. Wheaton was one of thirteen children born to William & Sarah Hall Wheaton, of German extraction(this is a questionable statement re German extraction). His birth occurred in Prairie Twp.,Holmes Co., OH., on the 16th day of May, 1827. After receiving a common school education, he, at the age of 20 yrs., began life for himself, in the occupation of farming in Seneca Co., his native state, where he remained for several yrs. Subsequently, he removed to Wood Co, until at the breaking out of the War. He enlisted in Co. K, 84th Reg. Oh. Vol. Infantry for the 3 month's service. He entered the Army in May 1862 & while on duty on a platform which ran from a railroad grade to the door of a second story building, was terribly injured. The platform gave way, & he was hurt in his lt. hip, his breast & head so severely that a hemmorhage of the lungs set in. He received his homorable discharge on Sept. 20, 1862. In 1881, he had the misfortune to lose the use of his voice, & Oct. 14, 1885, had a stroke of paralysis, the result of injuries received by the giving away & fall of the platform. Mr. Wheaton is an aggressive Republican, fully alive to the interests of his party. For two yrs. he has served as the constable of Crane Twp., & while a resident of Wood co., held the position for 25 yrs, which is much to his credit. He located his property in this co. in 1863, moving on it in 1876, where he has ever since abided, as one of the old & honored residents. At present he owns 40 acres of good land, 30 of which are under cultivation. By marriage on Aug. 24, 1851, Mr. Wheaton became the father of 6 chn., namely: Sarah C. (deceased), William J., George W., Phoebe A., Anise S. (deceased), & James E. The family are members of the Methodist Church. By reason of injuries received & his services rendered the country in its time of great need, Mr. Wheaton at this time draws a pension.

Letter from Oliver to Bob Evans 31 Mar. 1991:"I do not know where my mother was born. I evidently was mistaken for thinking she had been buried in the French Cemetery in Stryker. The care taker there says there is no record of her burial in that cemetery. She may have been buried in Swanton, Fulton , OH. or maybe taken back to Sherwood, Defiance, OH. I do not know the name of her parents. She had a brother "Elmer" who I visited once when I was a child. she also had another brother or half-brother and if I remember correctly was called "Tim". She had a sister or half-sister named "Jeannette". I am not positive about the half-brother or half-sister. They could have been full brothers and sisters. The sister named Jeannette, Leland and I called Nettie because I guess that was a nickname for her. She is the one that raised Leland after mother passed away. I have a picture of her with two of Alvin Yaney's children, Randy and David, and another photo of her tombstone showing the date of birth as 1874. She was first married to John Roush. After comparing her birthdate with the date on the head stone of the Uncle Elmer that I knew there is a ten year difference. Maybe Jeannette and Tim were half brothers and sisters. This Uncle Elmer was a telegraph operator for the B & O railroad at a signal tower a few miles west of Sherwood, OH. This is all I can think of in conneciton with the Wheaton family, wish I knew more. My mother and father were married in Defiance, Defiance,OH on 15 Aug. 1908. Mother died 21 Feb. 1913, Swanton, OH. Just found in an old photo album, an obituary of my mother, Lulu Mae Wheaton. She was born 10 Aug. 1890 at Sherwood, OH. She was the daughter of Mr. Anson Wheaton. She leaves to mourn, a husband, two sons, a father and mother, three sisters and five brothers. Janet Elaine Yaney Selbe talked to Oliver in 1986. Oliver was born in Sherwood, Defiance Co.,OH. and his mother died 21 Feb 1913 from the birth of a baby daughter named Elizabeth, born 8 Feb. 1913 in Swanton, OH. Both were buried in Stryker, OH. Oliver was only four and his brother Leland was a year and one-half. He was placed with his father's mother and brother Leland was placed with his mother's half-sister. Oliver lived with his grandmother until he was about ten or eleven years old, when his father remarried. He lived with him until 1928 when he married Florine Bolman. They lived in Toledo during the time the marriage lasted. Oliver moved to Columbus and worked several years in the Ohio Capitol Building, employed by the House of Representatives and later the Ohio Senate." "During this time I discovered I wasn't as smart as I thought I was, so I decided to go back to school. This I did and became an accountant. After the political climate changed in the House, I went to work as an accountant for two more years in Columbus. After two years in Chicago, I moved to Dayton, OH and went to work for the American Lubricants Co. and stayed their until 31 Dec. 1973. I began as an Accountant and retired as vice-President and Treasurer." "We moved to Ft. Lauderdale, FL and lived there until 1980, when we decided to move to a smaller city, Ocala, FL." Lucy, Thank you for sending the information. I copied the census for 1880, and found that I had nothing else for George Hall.That was it. But I do remember my mom and aunt talking about the Willetts. I just didn't know they fit into the Hall family twice. John Hall's daughter Lydia married Elwood Willett. They lived in Antwerp.

I think Isaac may have ended up out at the old infirmary or county home in Paulding Co. I read something about that somewhere. I'll have to check, because I don't have it in my FTM files.
Sue

Educator finds satisfaction in teaching GED students

By ANGELA WESTRICK

Profile

For Delores Mentley teaching is about giving someone a second chance. "I am an encourager," says the 60-year-old educator, who broke from her 15-year career in elementary education to teach general education (GED), to inmates of County Correctional Center of Northwest Ohio (CCNO).

"I like showing my students that even after failure, they can succeed. Most of them dropped out of school because of a negative attitude. Now they have a new attitude, which is very important — It's all about attitude and choices," says Mentley.

On her classroom wall she has posted the simple but insightful words of well-known Christian pastor, Chuck Swindoll, which reads: "The whole world is made up of attitudes.

"I act like a mother and keep after them all of the time," admits Mentley, who has been known to go "look them up," when any one of her students is absent from class. "But in the end it is their choice," she concludes, and although she hopes to shade the outcome, Mentley says she knows that ultimately the decision is theirs.

General education classes meet for hour-long sessions five days a week. The class size which averages between five to 15 students at any one given time, includes students whose ages range from 18 to 72.

"I want everyone to be a winner in life," says Mentley. In an isolated setting, the injection of hope can permeate even the most negative spirit.

Mentley, who previously taught elementary school at Defiance Christian School, which lost its charter in the 80s, says she is once again more free to speak about the Lord in her classroom. "Many of the people come in really depressed," she confides. "Everyone needs encouragement and love regardless of where they are."

Mentley completes corps work

AYERSVILLE — Rachel Mentley completed her work as a corps member of AmeriCorps National Civilian Community Corps. To date, she has accumulated some 1,700 hours of national community service.

Mentley, daughter of Virgil and Delores Mentley, Ayersville, will be honored July 30 with a special ceremony involving more than 250 corps members and team leaders. During the past 10 months, Mentley and her fellow corpsmen have been working around the U.S. on special projects including tornado relief in Florida and trail maintenance in the forests of South Carolina. She will receive $4,725 in exchange for her service to assist with college tuition and repay school loans.

room to be highly interactive, encouraging her students to pair up and help each other out. She doesn't refrain from assigning homework and makes the effort to match up students in the cell blocks who can act as tutors for classmates who might be struggling.

Although previous provisions allowed for GED students to be transported to Four County Joint Vocational School, Archbold, or Bryan for testing, in 1996 CCNO became a state approved testing site so that both maximum and minimum security individuals could be tested on the premises. According to Mentley in 1997, 91 inmates passed the GED, which is now offered twice a month. The center has as its goal to average 15 GEDs a month.

As a result of the initiative of colleague Dave Donaldson, who teaches the morning session of GED at the center, and supervisor, Kathy Dukes, in collaboration with some 600 student-inmates, Mentley was named Northwest Region GED Outstanding Instructor. Even more recently, Mentley won the state title, the competition of which involved five regions.

Sitting legs crossed with one arm resting comfortably on the chair behind her, she is dressed in flowing batik print slacks, refined white T-shirt and solid navy vest. The added detail of a sterling pencil and teddy bear pin works well as an insignia, denoting her teacher status.

At 5'2, her petite frame might seem an unlikely house for a spirit as mighty as Mentley's, but a strong-will comes in all shapes and sizes, from every walk of life. It might be said that she is gently, but thoroughly persuasive, filled with enough hope and joy of life that it spills onto everyone who comes to know her. "I am enjoying life as it is," she says, with eyes shining. I've had an interesting life — enjoy living — my life has been a nice, pleasant surprise."

"I don't know what I expected when I took this job, but it's been a real interesting job. These are neighborhood kids who messed up, and they're getting another chance."

According to Mentley one of the short-term goals of the center is to incorporate computers into the classroom to ready able individuals for the secular working field.

Born in Montpelier to Bernard and Thelma Hug, Mentley was the second oldest of 11 children. As there was much work to be done on the family farm each child was assigned to a particular task. Mentley was in charge of feeding the chickens and ducks twice a day and gathering eggs.

She recalls family pride rested on little feats like the time she and her brothers and sisters planted enough pickles to win money for a horse which they all shared.

Unstated discipline was the order of the day, she recalls, and anyone who "acted up" was consigned to the duty of hoeing x- amount of rows in the garden, which the children regarded as punishment.

Over summer break Mentley's grandparents took in one of the grandchildren to stay on at their farm in Waldron, Mich., where Mentley recalls being pampered, enjoying little luxuries like soda pop.

Growing up a Baptist, Mentley recalls being sensitive, serious and prone to frequent episodes of klutziness. She became a born-again Christian at age 14 and says, "Maturity and the Lord gave me confidence. I learned to laugh at myself. Someone once told me to 'Lighten up,' I am by nature a serious person, so I try to go with that."

As a student at Kunkle High School, now disband, Mentley was involved in choir and yearbook and like many girls at that time, she had plans of becoming a secretary. When the school principal, Ward Fritz, suggested to arrange a scholarship for her in education, Mentley prayed on the matter. The result of which culminated in Fritz enrolling her at Defiance College. And it seemed the experience brought into light aspirations that might have otherwise remained hidden.

So when an opening in missions presented the opportunity to travel abroad, Mentley, invested with salvation and a sense of humor, joined the United Brethren in Christ missionary in West Africa, where she stayed on the tiny island of Sierra Leone. For three years, from 1963-1967, Mentley and a staff of 10 teachers, of which only two were English-speaking missionaries, taught school and oversaw a dorm of 50 African girls who came from all over the vast continent. "I was a minority and I learned to respect the role of the minority person," admits Mentley. "Since I only got off the island three times a year it helped to be a homebody."

According to Mentley, at that time health problems seemed to pose the greatest potential harm. But about a year after the missionaries left, civil war broke out which raged for seven years leveling every village, school and hospital ever built.

"It just goes to show you that no matter what you build up here on earth, it won't last. Hospitals burn — schools — only the spirit of Jesus is left. I don't know what happened to the children. I don't even know if they are alive or dead."

Back in the States, it was while teaching first-grade at Stryker School that Mentley met her future husband, Virgil, also a teacher. They were married in 1968 and Mentley took a 15-year hiatus to raise a family of three children. In 1992 she returned to full-time teaching as the GED instructor at Four County Joint Vocational School, later working at CCNO on a state grant as a reading teacher.

She is a confessed book worm who enjoys burrowing into and out of a compelling Christian novel, intricate who-dun-it or inspirational biography. "I like to see how the Lord has worked in people's lives," she confides.

In waiting to become a grandmother for the first-time, she has been at work on a quilt for the new arrival which is due in October.

Her husband, a former Clevelandite, who in his retirement years now farms and serves as a distributor for Retro Seed, is a hard-line Cleveland Indians fan. The likes of which, Mentley says, have rubbed off her, and the two of them tune into the game nightly.

It seems Mentley has want for little else than "contentment in the Lord." Her standards for living require her to "go the second mile" for somebody — to be "pleasing to the Lord.

"I don't believe in being negative," she says. "Those who cannot forgive, carry a bitter spirit. To see what the Lord can do with you, you have to allow it."

An abondoned house south of Defiance went up in a quick blaze Wednesday afternoon. At approximately 3:30 p.m., the Highland Township Fire Department arrived to find the house, owned by Virgil Mentley, 27369 Mansfield Road, fully engulfed in flames. According to fire chief Hal Hanenkrath, Mentley was burning a shed on the property when flames spread to the house. Mentley had intended to burn the house at a later date but the blaze got out of control. Firefighters were then advised to let the fire burn. The fire department was on the scene for approximately two hours.

MARCH 2002

Descendants of Alanson A. SLOAN

Generation No. 1

1. Alanson A.^{2} SLOAN (Humphrey^{1}) was born 3 Mar 1812 in New York[1], and died 16 Apr 1874 in Richfield Twp., Lucas Co., OH[1]. He married Clarinda PALMER 30 Sep 1833 in New York[1], daughter of Aden PALMER and Hannah PALMER. She was born Oct 1815 in Steuben Co., New York[1], and died 8 Jan 1903 in Richfield Twp., Lucas Co., OH.

Notes for Alanson A. SLOAN:
Alanson Sloan and his young family are listed in the 1840 Census of Reading, Stueben Co., NY, one page away from the parents of his wife. Given are males: [20-30 = 1 = Alanson; 5-10 = 2; and 0-5 = 1] and females [20-30 = 1], which matches well with his known family. The family of Humphrey Sloan [40-50], probably his father, is enumerated in Reading in 1840 and 1850. Note that the Census Index shows them in Tyrone which is the township. No documents have been found confirming Humphrey as the father of Alanson.

Notes for Clarinda PALMER:

CLARINDA PALMER

She was the fourth great grandmother of Clinton James Dart on his paternal side, from whom this information comes.

Clarinda, sometimes written as Clarissa or Clara, was born in October of 1815 in New York. She married Alanson A. Sloan on 31 September 1833 in Steuben County, NY. Clarinda died 12 January 1903 in Richfield Township, Lucas County, OH. Alanson and Clarinda lived in Tyrone and Reading Townships, Steuben County, until about 1846 when they moved to Reed Township, Seneca County, OH, and then before 1850 to Reading Township, Hillsdale County, MI. About 1853, they moved back to Reed Township and remained there until about 1870 when they moved to Richfield Township, Lucas County, OH. In the 1900 US Census, Clarinda said she had seven children, however only six have been identified.

No solid evidence has been found to prove that Clarinda was the daughter of Aden Palmer, Jr. other than her death record which lists Aden as her father. However, all evidence points to the relationship and nothing has been found to the contrary.

Children of Alanson SLOAN and Clarinda PALMER are:

THE CONTINUING SAGA OF THE HALL FAMILY, AS DISCERNED BY L.J.H. BY SPYING (Cjiefly on Cenuss records, of courxe.)

Today, I didst goeth to Denver Public LIbrary and peruse many a quaint volume of forgotten lore, from which the follwing wast glean'd.

1820 Chio Census, emphasizing Cbshoction County, the nrothern part of which, in 1824 became part of Holmes County. Millersburg, where James Hall the yonnger was born in 1821, is now the county seat of Holmes co, but was, as tr still is, in Hardy Twp, but then Hardy Twp was in Coshocton Co.

These are just as shown---immediately adjaceent and following in t this order.

This tends to confirm my argument that tha father of Reuben S., William and Sarah is JAMES Hall. The naming of his firstborn "James" by William goes along with this.

Enough on that. I intend to get the large-scale Xerox printout the Ensus records that I can get, showing the 1850 Seneca, Reed. Will send copies alogg and let you judge for yourselves.

I also looked up the Wheaton's and the Boyd's.

Go back a few lines in the Census, and we find:

William Whitten 0 0 0 1 0 0 // 0 0 1 0 0 // 0 1
Jonathan Whitten 0 0 0 1 0 1 // 0 0 1 0 1 // 0 1 — father
Anson Whitten 0 0 0 0 1 0 // 0 0 1 0 0 // 0 1
David Whitten 0 0 0 0 1 0 // 0 0 1 0 0 // 0 1
skip 3 names
Joseph Vail 3 0 0 0 0 1 // 4 0 1 0 0 // 0 1
skip 8 names
James Hall
Reuben S. Hall as above

No doubt that William Whitten above is our William Whaeton, newly married to Sarah Hall, nor that Reuben S. is our Reuben S., newly married to Almira Wheaton.

William Whitten: one male aged 16-26 with wife aged 16 to 26
Jonathan Whitten one male aged 16-26 and one over 45, with females 16-26 abd over 45.
Anson Whitten one male 26-45, female 16-26
David Whitten one male 26-45, female 16-26

We won't worry about Jespph Vail here and now.

James Hall male 16-26 and one mlae over 45; female over 45
Reuben one male 16-26 (26-45) and female 16-26 and female 26-45.

From the above interpretation, I can't decide if Jonathan Wheaton father is the father of Anson, William and David or not, but it looks the most likely. Of course, we can have other unmarried brothers and/or hired men and/or hired women to pertubrb the countsfrom what we want.

No Boyd's in Coshoctin Co, but in Wayne county, there are two. Pne, James Boyd, is in East Union, which is still in Wayne Co, but the other, John Boyd, is in Piant Twp, which was split so there are Paint Twps in both Wayne and Hommes Cos.

John Boyd 3 1 0 1 1 0 // 1 0 0 0 0 // 0 0 // 0 2 Paint Twp.
James Boyd 3 1 0 0 0 1 // 2 1 3 1 0 // 0 2 // 0 0 East Union Twp.

Fits perfectly, other than Eliza Jane is year older if judged from 1840

OK---off to the races. The grab-bag of miscellaneous infor and ideas.

If we look at the New York Census for 1800, we find one James Hall that fits our needs:

No/

Orange County page 352 2 0 0 1 0 - 0 0 1 0 0 - 0 0
This is 2 sons under 10---Reuben S. and William, father James at 26-45, as eh should be and a wife at the saem age, as she should be.
This might imply that theer never was any children that lived to any age at all besides Reuben S., William and Sarah!
In the vicinity we also find:

John Boyd	Orange Co. pg. 292	2 0 1 0 2 - 0 1 0 0 2 - 0 0

These latter wto pertain to my theory that Sarah Hall, d/o Wm. Hall and Eliz. Boyd Hall was NOT Sarah Grizzy afte marrige, but rather Sarah Griggs. I cam't find a Grizzy as a surname in any state, but a poorly handwritten Griggs could be read as Grizzy.

Alas and alack! Esepcially, a LACK! The twon of Millersburg, Ohio, destroyed the old pioneer's cemetery to make a city parkk! They rooted out the old stones and threw them over the side of the hill at the edge of the cemetery, so they could make it all smooth grass and put in swings and such for the kiddies. So, if there were other Hall's, if GREATGREATGRANDMOTHER Hall died in Millersberg, we'll possibly never know. A pox on the entire town and its officers and mayor who were responsitble for this act of desecration and vandalism by a band of hooligan adults who ought to know better.

("Oh, he's at it AGAIN! Will someone take that soapbox away and shut him up, please!")

On the Holmes Co, Ohio, 1825 Tax List:

Joel & Frederick Hall
William Hall
Frederick Hall
Reuben S. Hall

On the 1820 Census, Coshocton Co:

James Hall	Hardy Twp, 021
Reuben S. Hall	Hardy Twp, 021
Frederick Hall	Berlin Twp, 022
Joel Hall	Berlin Twp, 022!

Frederick and Joel are close enough that they could be brothers to William and Reuben S., and are about the right ages, too.

So, now I have to check if we can find William Hall living in Paint Twp, Wayne Co. THAT would complete the picture, aside from wondering about Frederick and Joel. On the other hand, no Frederick's or Joel's show up in the families of William, REuben S. or Sarah. Soooooo!!!

Don't know if I've sent yuu this beofer or not, so here goes:

Haven't yet forund anything on the Templan-Hendricks relationship mentined by Lee Saunders, but there are Templan Seed Company offices in Three Rivers and Marshall, but this morning I was told by Information that the name is spelled Templin and they couldn't find one in Marshall. I was trying to foind out if there is a Templan family in either Marshall or Three Rivers. She said none in Three Rivers, but that is where I'd expect the home to be. I'll bet the relationship is that one of the daughters of Joel Wm. Hendricks married a Templan. We NEED such, you know. Note that we have only three children, all males for him. Further, we know of only one still alive in 1900---Leslie---but they had 6 children, 3 still living in 1900. So, I'm sure they had a daughter or two married for us to account for eventually.

To Mom Dixon: The descendent of Reuben S; Hall that Georgene is in touch with is Chet Dart in Holmes Beach, Florida. She also heard from Delvin Samuel's wife, who got her data on the Saunders's from Lee Saunders, who gets it off the top of his head, I'm sure, since his records, if any, are possibly back in White Pigeon with his wife. (He lives in Wayne a Detroit suburb.)

Think this does it for now.

I did not omit any dates ~~not~~ given on the manuscript of the Cemetery reading. Data on this reading:

Copied Sept. 17, 1974, by Phyllis C. Osmun, from O.G.S., Defiance Chapter records on this cemetery. History has it that 12-20 slaves are buried in the lower part of the cemetery, victims of disease on their journey on the underground railroad north to Canada.

I wonder if that Antionette Wheaton could be the daughter of NELSON and Mary Jane Bills? Reading old stones is fun.

Last week I got a letter from an older couple in Kankakee, Ill. They live a block down the street from the brother-in-laws. Earlier this summer, they found a green notebook of family history lying on their front sidewalk, and had just gotten around to writing me.

I send the b-in-l down to pick it oup and tolk him to keep it until one or another of us got out there, so haven't seen it. Maybe it's all written full of obscenities or chewed up a bit, don't know yet. But, some of it's back, at least. Let's hope in good enough shape to salvage the data, at least.

I found, in a book on wills and probates for Ohio (an index) in the possession of the Bojlder Gen. Soc., the following:

Estate records for JAMES PRICHARD occur in "Common Pleas Journal", volume B, page 80 and 134, and in the "Common Pleas Record," volume C, pages 83 and 87, for Jefferson County, Ohio. He died in 1813!!!!!!! Now, maybe Martha Prichard etc. 's father was killed in Baltimore during the War of 1812, but maybe not in the Battle of Sept. 13-14, 1814. This could be him.

Alas!

I cannot find who has these reocrds. The probate court suggested I try the Historical Socieyt there---the court doesn't have them. The Mormone don;t have them---at least, I couldn't find them on their index.

I'll just bet that this is Martha Prichard Hendricks Gardner's father. Dad insisted there was family connections in Steubenville, Ohio. This would do it.

Been too busy with funerals and work and what-not, haven't gotten the Jefferson county Historical Society written yet. CNe of these day

We may be gojng up to Saratoga, Who, for a few days and will dig through the cems there to see if we can find Georgre O. Baker buried there. Might get a lead to the rest of Martha J. Gibbens survivors that way.

Close and mail or else won't get done.

Floyd

Any comments on that big, fat letter, or are you still having indigestion from it?
Got a whole batch of stuff on the Gish's from Phyllis Osmun, too. May have enough to get Mrs. Digerness (ggd/o Joel E.) to do some digging.

The Controversy about James Hall vs. Joseph Hall: Part 93-A:

We can acccount for the location of James Hall on all Censuses after 1820 up to the time of his death.
He did NOT file on land in Seneca County at any time, living else where until he moved in with Reuben S. Hall in Seneca Co.

Further, look at the enclosed reproduction of the 1850 Seneca Census, on an enlarged scale.

His entry is Ja$^{\underline{s}}_{''}$, written: Ja$^{\underline{s}}_{''}$ (a$^{\underline{s}}_{''}$ = a$^{\underline{s}}_{''}$) on line 18.

Compare this with Tho$^{\underline{s}}_{''}$, written as: Tho$^{\underline{s}}_{''}$ on lines 21, 30 & 38 and Ja$^{\underline{s}}_{''}$, written in the very same way on line 32, w;hich is very definitely an abbreviation for James. (It's written more clearly there than on line 18.)

This business of writing names ending in "s" as the first few letters of the name following by an underlined "s" and omittting the intermediate letters is a standard way of abbreviating those names. Ashley just did it will an added florish suing that " under the underline, and in the case for which we're concerned, he did all that florishing without lifting his pen but once.

AZll in all, I'm certain it's JAMES Hall, not Joseph Hall.

Griggs → Griggs → Grizzy → Grizzy

Now, this is STILL Griggs, but it LOOKS more like it's Grizzy!

Anyhow, I'll bet the James Hall family lived in Orange Co. N.Y. and Sussex and/or Passaic in N.J.
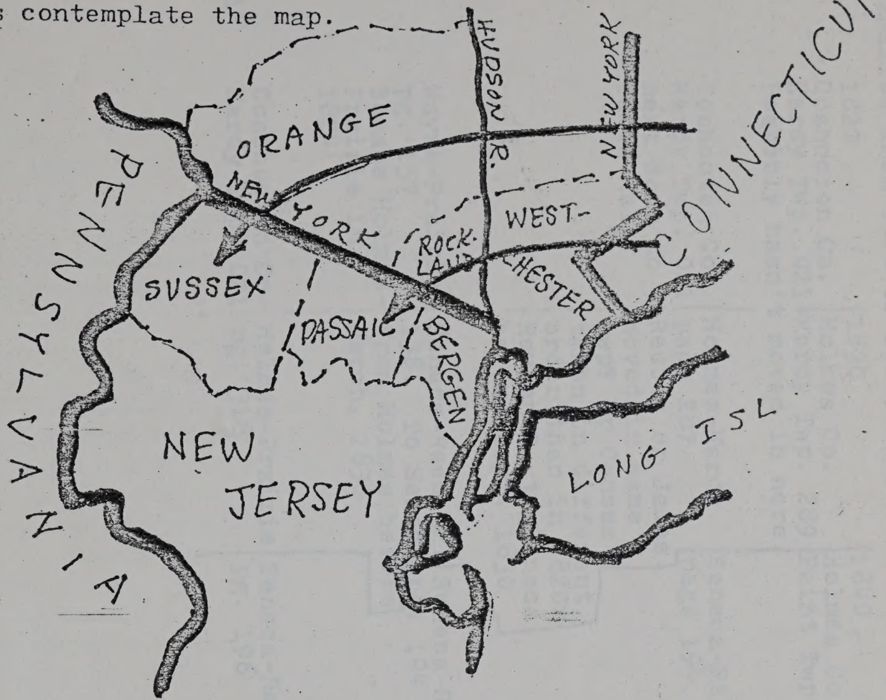
at various times. Can't check the 1810 N.J.
Census---it's missing.

Now, let us contemplate the map.



Several need to be considered.

1) Reuben S., William and Sarah at various times claim to have been born in New York or New Jersey.
Reuben S. claimed New Jersey as birthplace on 1850, 1860, 1870 Censuses. 1900 Census - David S said NJ and Anson W said NY.
William claimed New York on 1860 and 1870, his sone James claimed it for him on the 1880 Census, etc.
Sarah claimed New Hessey for 1850, the only one we've found for her.

1870-80 - NJ and both parents NY

And James, the father, claimed New York on the 1850 Census.
Inn other words, each was consistent, but only James the Elder and William clained New York.

2) We still have reason to beleive that the Hall family ultimately came from Connecticut, since that's a family story which crops up for example, when Lydia claims Conn. for her father's birthplace.

3) Around 1800, the majority of the popluation in Organge Co, New York, away from the Hudson, at least, had migrated there from Connecticut. See arrows on the map. And, like in Pennsylvaniz to the west, the ridges run NE-SW, so that once in Organge co, the natural migtation route is to the SW to New Jersey.

Now, if we could find a family of Hall's in Connecticut who had a son who went to New York, preferably Organge County, about 1760 and had a son named James in 1765, we'd probably have the Hall line fixed up back to the beginning, thanks to Dave Hall's book on the Halls of Connectictu. May have to get that back again and recheck----I was looking for a William Hall the first time, and that we now know was wrong.

Dear Sue,

Read with interest your ancestral chart in the latest " Yesteryear's Trails", especially when the name Hall appeared on it. We are on the same family tree.

James and Mary Ann (?) Hall

William Hall m. Elizabeth Boyd-his sister was Sarah Hall-m. William Wheaton
John Hall m. Lydia Franklin Bills-his cousin was Anson Wm. Wheaton
Joshua D. Hall m. Emma Wheeler-his 2nd cousin was Elmer Anson Wheaton
Laura E. Hall m. Albert Smith- her 3rd cousin was Erma Arvilla Wheaton Rulman
Bertha Smith m. Byron Sproul-her 4th cousin is Lucy Rulman Weaver
Sue Sproul m. ___Sohn-her 5th cousin is Ann Weaver Shevin or she is 4th cousin once removed of Lucy Weaver.

I know your Mom since we are both reg. nurses. Also used to work at the Health Dept. and I believe Helen Brown is related to you in some way. Small world. Would like to share Hall data with you. Perhaps we can fill in some blanks on each other's charts. Let me know.

Enclosed is an S.A.S.E. for your convenience.

Thanks for your reply Lucy. I wonder if James and David are brothers? Another thought, I found many Halls/Babcock families in the western counties of New York, Genesee, Wyoming, Erie, Cattaraugus and Chautauque. I wonder if this might be where this family began?

Appreciate your efforts. I will also keep your email and let you know if/when the name appears for me.

James HALL born ca 1765 in New Jersey was residing in Seneca Co., OH. on 2 Aug. 1850 when the Federal Census was taken. He was age 85 & living with his son Reuben HALL. His son Reuben moved to Fulton Co., OH. before 1860 and James does not appear on the 1860 census with him. Looking for the deathdate and deathplace of James and his wife's name.
Will appreciate any clues about my elusive James Hall. Lucy Weaver, Defiance,OH. north@defnet.com

Hi Sue,

All we have on Hall is our Hannah Hall, b. abt 1775, most likely in Orange County, New York, as that is where she married William Anway/Nanney in 1798. William was born Nanney, but changed his name to Anway. We don't know why. Hannah died after 1851 in Seneca County, Ohio. We haven't found out who Hannah's parents were. Our Hannah could be an older sister to your William, or an aunt. I would surmise that they are related, as the Halls and Anways moved to Seneca County together. We just have not done that much research on that line. We are currently actively researching more than 50 ancestral lines, both of our ancestors.

Children of William Hall & Emily Moss:
1. Lydia Caroline b 13 Jan 1842 Steuben Co NY; d 21 Oct 1920 Franklin Co. NE; mar George jacob Hendricks on 25 Oct 1864 in Paulding Co. (He is s/o Samuel Hendricks & Martha Prichard.
2. Reuben A. b 16 Feb 1844 in Seneca Co OH; d 27 Oct 1917 Kingman Co KS; mar 19 Dec 1867 in Defiance Co OH to Mary Cath. Spindler.
3. Samuel R. Hall b Feb 1852 Seneca Co; d ca 1910 KS; mar 1st Mary Barbara Harmon; (info sent to me: mar 2nd Sarah Ellen Olinger 19 Jan 1871 in Defiance Co. OH). It appears in 1880 & 1900 NE census Mary's mother is living with them so perhaps the 2nd marriage info is wrong. I have never been in contact with anyone from Samuel's line.

I believe that Elizabeth Boyd Hall died after 1838 & prior to 1840. She last signed on a land record in 1838 & if I recall correctly he didn't have a wife in 1840. Would have to check my files for the 1840 info.
Sarah Hall: (born 8 July 1830) I show that her middle name was 'Grizzy' & I had no idea that she ever married. She had to have married late in life. (Elizabeth Boyd Hall had a sister Grizzy who never married - could it be the given name??????)

Hi, Shirley, Wow, that was quick. I just talked to Trudy this a.m. First of all, wanted to offer you sympathy on your mother's death. Do you remember how you and your parents used to visit Bill and Dorothy Schmunk on Warren St. and Tom Schmunk and I would play with you? (I was Lucy Rulman and I lived across the street from Tom inthe two story grey shingled house). I don't know if I have all of the Hall data that Ruth Simon had or not. I went to visit her once and she gave me a lot of info re the people who were Hall descendants. For instance, Louise Hall Weber(who was our daughter's grade school teacher at St. Johns) And the Latchaws and Bertha Sproul. >Dear Lucy, I just got an e-mail from Trudy Rakes. She said she had talked to you and that you have more information on the Halls. Everything has been so hectic this last year with Ruth and my Mother that my genealogy has kind of gone by the way side. I have good intentions and a bunch of notes of things to do, so maybe one of these days. The internet is new to me. I have the Family Tree Maker now and have just started entering information. I guess it is the way our daughter set up our e-mail but neither one of us can get anything with attachments. So I have a lot to learn. Do you have all of the Hall information that Ruth had? Maybe the message from you is what it will take to get me going again. Nice to hear from you. Shirley Shumaker

Subject: Hall family

William Hall is buried in Colby Cemetery, which is right across the line from Crane Twsp., Paulding County, Ohio. His death is recorded in Paulding County, Ohio. He lived in Crane Twsp., near Cecil, and was a farmer. He was in Holmes County, then Seneca County, before he lived in Paulding County. He was born in New York State, probably Orange County, January 30, 1797. The 1800 NY Census lists him as being 3 years old. He was married to Elizabeth Boyd November 22, 1819. The 1820 Census shows him in Prairie Twsp., Wayne County,Ohio, age 20. In the 1830 Census he was in Seneca Ohio, Reed Twsp., age 30. In the 1840 census he was in the same place, age 40. His wife, Elizabeth Boyd, died in Seneca County, around 1840. He married Emily Moss in 1841. In the 1860 Census he was in Crane Twsp., Paulding County, Ohio. His and Elizabeth's children were James P., John, Mary Ann., and Sarah. He married second Emily Moss, before 1847. In Fulton County there is an obit for George A. Hall, who died April 14, 1915 in Fulton County. Ohio. It says he was born September 15, 1847 in Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. His parents are given as William A. Hall and Emily Hall. Geoge married Elizabeth Eberly on September 27, 1866. He had no children. He had sisters Carrie Pennell and Rhoda Beard. Source: Swanton Library Early Obits. Lucy, Is this correct? I do not have this George as a child of William Hall in my records.

William Hall and Emily Moss had three children. Lydia Caroline Hall , Reuben A. Hall, and Samuel R. Hall.

Lydia Caroline was born 13 January 1842 in Steuben County, NY, and died 21 October in Upland, Franklin County, Nebraska. She married George Jacob Hendricks 25 October 1864 in Paulding County, Ohio. George was the son of Samuel Hendricks and Martha Prichard.

Reuben A. Hall was born 16 February 1844 in Seneca County, Ohio, and died 27 October 1917 in Kingman County, Kansas. He married Mary Catherine Spindler 19 December, 1867 in Defiance County, Ohio.

Samuel R. Hall was born February 1852 in Seneca County, Ohio, and died about 1910 in Kansas.He married(1) Mary Barbara Harmon, and (2) Sarah Ann Ollinger 19 January 1871 in Defiance County, Ohio.
He was in Nebraska in 1880 and 1890.

The information on William and Emily Moss children is from Georgene

Sones. I didn't know if you had this, so I thought I would send it along to you, just in case. Do you have a Census report on William for 1850? I do not have one, but wondered if he could have been in NY in 1850, or in Michigan since one of the John Hall children was born in MI.

Lucy,
That obit is a puzzle to me too. I had not had George listed in my records either. I checked Paulding library for George and found a George W. Hall vet of the Civil War, died at age 73 in 1905. He lived near Arthur, no survivors are listed. I don't know who he is either. So no questions answered, just one more to figure out.
I had been to the courthouse and found death records for William R. Hall, died age 26, in 1872, lung fever. I checked his estate records, and copied some on the copy machine. If you don't have them, I will get copies to you, if you want them. He was born in Oakland, Michigan. The 1820 Oakland County, MI Census, shows a William Hall, a male age 18 to 26, two daughters, a female over 45, commerce. Listed also on voter and petition list in 1821, and 1823. I checked 1850 Census, Oakland county, and found James Hall, town of Oakland, and many more Hall's there. William R. was born in 1846, so I checked to see who was there in 1850. Just trying anything to find out what I could.
A beautiful day today. I'm going to work in the garage to see if I can sort through some things I put out there while I was painting a bedroom. I've got to get rid of some stuff.

Lucy,
Georgene Sones had sent me information about the children of William Hall and Emily Moss.
She says they had three children, Lydia Caroline b 1842 Steuben County, NY
Reuben Hall born in 1844 Seneca County, and Samuel A. Hall, born 1852 in Seneca County.
I checked the Steuben County NY site and found several references to Wheaton's.
Is this your Wheaton family? Did they come from Steuben County, NY? I also was working on the Sanford/Cassidy family, and they also moved from Steuben County, to Seneca County to Defiance County, and lived close to the Hall's in Highland Twp.

Hello Sue,

I am writing regarding the Hall families in Holmes Co., Ohio. My great great grandmother was a Hall.

Her name: Margaret Jane Hall
DOB: April 20,1842 in Ohio
Died: July 22, 1921 in Talent, Oregon and is buried in Stearns Cemetery at Talent, Oregon.

She married Adam Wolgamott who was born (we believe) in Holmes Co.,Ohio.
DOB: June 15,1837
Died: December 15,1900 in Talent, Oregon and is buried in Stearns Cemetery at Talent, Oregon.

Margarets parents were Jeremiah Hall and Margaret Montgomery Hall. We believe that Margaret has a twin brother but we are not positive. I know that Margarets family had a farm or a ranch and that Adam worked on this place and was a horse hostler. They married and headed out west and settled in Oregon.

I have also noticed that also from Holmes Co. there is an email address for Wagamott. I believe this is also a connection for the Wolgamott family.

I would like to share family information on the Hall side in Ohio.

Thanks

Kathy

Dear Lucy,
I came accross your listing in the RSL at rootsweb. I have Halls that were in Paulding and Defiance counties, Ohio. Breifly, I have George Franklin Hall b. c1861, Paulding co,Ohio. He married Addie Mae Willit in Defiance Co, 1887. George was a minister in the United brethren church. His father may have been James Hall. Can you tell me a little more about your Hall family?

thanks,

Lucy,
I am happy to hear that you have found another Hall descendant. She sent you some things that I didn't have. I had no information on George Hall before I saw your e-mail of last night. I did know how he fit in though.
I haven't been working on the Hall family lately. I have been working on Allen co. Ranes, Tucker's, Walton's, and found them near some Hall's. I don't thnk they were of our Hall family.
Have you ever investigated the Frederick and Joel Hall that were in Coshocton Co?
James and his son Reuben Hall are listed in the 1820 Census, Coshocton County,
Hardy Twp., P. 21. Also entered are Frederick and Joel Hall, Berlin Twp., P. 22

They sure lived close together.
Sue

I have some photos of the John Hall family, and my grandmother's photo album.

hello again,
Please go ahead and pass my info along to Sue Sohn. I will be looking forward to hearing from her.
George Franklin Hall is my gg-grandfather. He had two children, Roscoe and Ruth. I am descended from Roscoe, who died young, my grandmother would have been around 6 at the time. My grandmother had one sister, Betty, who passed away recently. My grandmother, Miriam is still living, but her memory is not the greatest.

I am really interested in hearing more about Sue's line. Is she also descended from George Franklin Hall? I hope so, it would be nice to find a long lost relative.

Thanks for all the help,

Posted by Byron Atkinson <byron@dellmail.com> on Tue, 08 Aug 2000 This is Seneca Co., OH.

Surname: Hall, Mansfield, Stevens

I am looking for information on the family of James M. Mansfield and Kitty Stevens. Jame's father may have been William Mansfield. Kitty's parents are Isaac Forest Stevens and Sarah J. Hall. Kitty was born in Defiance in 1876, died in Fostoria in 1917. Both Kitty and James are buried in Fountain cemetery.

-Lucy,
This is what I had on Sarah Jane Hall, and I have e-mailed this person with the following:
My g.g. grandfather, John Hall, mentioned Kitty Mansfield in his will.
Sarah Jane Hall was his daughter. Sarah Jane died in 1877 just before her 20th birthday, and is buried in Defiance Co., Ohio, near her mother and father.
Sarah Jane Hall married Wm. Forest Stevens in Defiance co.in 1873.

I just got home from a trip to Decatur and Franklin co., IN, today. I went on a gen. trip for my Shouse, Parmer, Smith line and found what I needed at the courthouses. Yes, the tree is still growing from the courthouse roof!!!
It's a neat place to visit.

I haven't heard from you in a while. I haven't been working too much on the Hall line lately, but did subscribe to Ancestry.com and happened to find this census record.
Do you still attend the Defiance meetings? I haven't gone for a long time but do keep up my membership.
I do attend here at Paulding.

Lucy,

Here is the info I have on my branch of the family tree. Please do not share any of the info on living people. Where do you fit in?

My grandmother grew up in Hicksville and Bryan, Ohio. Her name is Miriam Hall and she is close to 90 now. She moved away in her twenties and spent most of her life in CT. She is now in a retirement home near my uncle, in SC.

I noticed in the 1870 Paulding census, that there is a Reuben Hall living very close to James Hall. Do you have any idea what the relationship there is??

Thanks for your help with this. I'm looking forward to seeing your info.

Susan Orlie

Lucy,
Here in AZ, there are many Mormons. Also, many Mormon family history centers. The one in Mesa is second only to SLC. I will try to help you out with James, if I can. It looks like a lot of records exist for Orange County, NY. Do you have a feeling for what religion these folks might have been? It looks like there are early Dutch Reformed, Presbyterian and Congregational records. Perhaps, we could get lucky and find some baptism or marriage info.

Lucy,
Wanted to forward this info on to you. Please let me know what you think. I do not know if these Halls are connected with ours or not. Strange that none of these wills mention sons.
Question: do you know if there is a will for James Hall in Seneca County, OHio?

I am going to order film of early Presbyterian records at my FHC. It will probably take a couple of weeks to come in. I hope to find some Hall records.

Lucy,
I have found Sarah Grizzy Hall, William Hall's daughter. I had no real information about her except for her birth date and stories that she had died young.
The person that sent the following to me I had gotten in touch with and we are corresponding. I mailed a reply to him last night.
Susan Orlie is working on finding the Hall's in New York and is also writing to me. She found a payment to a William Hall in Seneca Co., Ohio for payment for War of 1812 and it was from Orange Co., New York.

Lucy,
I think there must be some connection with our Halls. I was looking around the Orange County website yesterday. They have some records on-line there. In the 1775 assessment roll, the only Halls listed are Daniel and Reuben. There are some Presby marriages on-line, and I was disappointed in these,as there are not Halls listed. I am wondering if maybe they were Baptist, and I don't think the Baptist records have been filmed. I think these people must all fit together, but I don't know how

Lucy,
I checked the 1790 census for Orange. Daniel Hall is listed w/ 3 males in the household. I believe this is the same Daniel whose will was probated in 1804 with no mention of sons. I am thinking that this guy had sons who just weren't included in the will, perhaps they were already provided for. What do you think?

Sue,

Yes, it may be the same Sarah Hall. I have the July 3, 1830 date of birth, based on information on her gravestone (she died 30 Sept. 1853 in Wright Township, Ottawa County, Michigan). My McNitts lived in Seneca County, Ohio from 1835 on, moving there from Cayuga County, NY. I would assume that William McNitt got to know Sarah Hall while they were both living in Seneca County. When she moved up to Oakland County, he followed her up there, married her and then brought her back to Seneca County.

William McNitt was my great-great grandfather. Sarah was his first wife. They had no children. When she died at a young age, William married Hannah Maria Wilder. They had four children. For more information on William McNitt see:

http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Woods/8049/danielmc/william.htm

I have seen various Halls in Seneca County census records, but I do not know where Sarah fits in. Would you please send me something about her parents? Is there any additional information you would like from me?

Bill

I copied some information about yourMcNitt/ Hall family. I don't know where I got this information from anymore, but I did copy your e-mail address on what I printed out. Thank goodness.
I have a Sarah Grizzy Hall from Seneca Co., Ohio, born 1830 in my line that may be your Sarah.
My Hall's were in Seneca Co., Ohio. Some births were in Michigan of a couple of the Hall family members but they went on by 1854 or so back to Ohio.
Do you have a full birth date for Sarah G. Hall? I have a Sarah G. Hall born July 3, 1830.Is that a match?

William McNitt (1823-1884) and Hannah Wilder (1832-1915)

William McNitt, the fourth of Daniel and Jane's children was born on September 5, 1823, at Brutus, Cayuga County, New York and was 11 years old when the family moved to Ohio. At age 23, William traveled to Oakland County, Michigan, northwest of Detroit, to marry Sarah G. Hall, age 16. Since Sarah had relatives in Seneca County, Ohio, William must have known her before she moved to Michigan. After their marriage on November 19, 1846, they returned to Ohio.

On May 18, 1847, William and Sarah bought his parents' farm, but on May 13, 1848, they sold it back and began planning to join his cousins Horace and Ira McNitt in western Michigan. When William left for Michigan in 1849, Sarah remained behind with some of her relatives.

Soon after his arrival in Michigan, William rented an 80 acre farm on section 24 of Wright Township in Ottawa County, only a short distance from Grand Rapids and fairly close to his cousins in Sparta Township of Kent County. About a year later, on August 22, 1850, William bought this farm from William P. Wells for $100 and returned to Ohio to get Sarah.

William may have built some sort of cabin on the farm while he was renting it or perhaps they lived with neighbors or relatives for a while. During the next few years, they built a house, cleared trees, and drained the swampy area at the west end of the farm. By September 20, 1851, they had accumulated enough money to buy an additional 40 acres.

The rigors of frontier life or the existence of nearby swamps must have proved too much for Sarah's health as she died at age 23 on September 30, 1853. The following year William married Hannah M. Wilder, whose family lived about four miles away in Alpine Township of Kent County. Hannah's father had died several years previously, so after the marriage her brothers Joseph and Eleazer came to live with them. Eleazer left after a few years, but Joseph remained until he reached adulthood.

On November 27, 1857, William and Hannah bought an additional 40 acres of adjacent land. They sold half of this addition to William's brother Samuel on January 21, 1859, and then bought another 40 acre parcel on April 19. This brought their farm up to a total of 180 acres.

In 1860, only 70 acres were classified as cleared and improved. Farm products included wheat, rye, corn, oats, potatoes, barley, hay, wool, butter, and maple sugar. Among the livestock were five horses, two milch cows, seven other cattle, 30 sheep, and three swine.

In the summer of 1864, William entered into a business deal which led him into a new field of endeavor. On June 3, he took over a lease on a sawmilling business in Walker Township of Kent County owned by Joseph Bullen, who was both Hannah's uncle and step-father. William ran the mill for a year before giving up the lease, but apparently operated it again in 1866 and 1867.

On December 1, 1868, William and Hannah formed a partnership with her brother Joseph Wilder and his wife Polly to buy the sawmill from Bullen. This business, located near the corner of Four Mile Road and Walker Road and powered by an overshot water wheel using water from a mill pond on Indian Mill Creek, became known as the McNitt and Wilder Mill.

The mill, which was almost 25 years old, had languished in the early 1860's, but William and Joseph soon rebuilt it into a thriving enterprise. Between 1864 and 1874, they increased the capital invested in the mill from $1,000 to $5,000, while the value of its products went from $450 to $10,000, and the number of employees rose from two to four.

William and Joseph found the new business profitable and began paying off their mortgage at a faster rate than the agreement required. As soon as they made the last payment in December 1876, William and Joseph dissolved the partnership. Joseph got the south end of the farm and $1000, while William kept the north end and the milling business.

In 1877, William and Hannah built the house which still stands on their farm. While it was under construction, a fire completely destroyed the mill, including some lumber intended for the new house. William finished the house and rebuilt the mill as a combination sawmill and gristmill. The new mill had facilities for sawing one million feet of lumber a year, but never produced that much as the lumbering business in western Michigan had passed its peak. The gristmill, with its two runs of millstones, had an annual trade of 1000 bushels plus a considerable custom trade. By 1884, William's capital investment stood at $10,000.

William died on July 5, 1884, two months short of his 61st birthday. His two sons had already left home, so Hannah closed the mill and sold its equipment. She lived with one or the other of her daughters until dying on May 7, 1915, aged 83.

Ladies,
I am back from my fishing expedition. While I have not made any earth shattering discoveries, I think I have some leads.

Seneca County, OH wills:
They had an index and vols 1 and 2, I will have to order vol 3.
William L. Hall: d. c1857 not much info given, wife Eunice Eunice Hall: d. c1857 mentions deceased daughter children, children of her son William, son Lyman, dau-in-law Phebe Hall- wife of Amos, sons Amos, Lyman and Horace.
Henry Hall: d. c1856, mentions wife Susan, son Squire F., daughter Mary M. Lapham.
There is a will for William J. Hall in vol.3-I think I have already ordered this microfilm, but it has not yet arrived.

Seneca County, OH, deed index, grantees.

There were a lot of Halls listed in this index, I can order the film for the deed books. There were a lot of entries under William Hall, including one deed between William Hall and William J. Hall. Also, a deed with Grantor D.Vail,adm to William Hall. Two deeds to Reuben S. Hall, one granted be US, the other by Wm. Wheaton.

Coshocton and Wayne deed books were not available, I'll need to order them.

Orange County, NY deed index A-H, grantees. Grantors index will need to be ordered:
1794 deed from Reuben Hall to James Hall

Hope these deed records will turn up some useful information!

Subject: Hall

I made a breakthrough this morning. To me at least. Lucy, you probably already know this.
It has been a family story that the Hall's came into Defiance Co. from MI and crossed the river in Defiance, Ohio. My g.grandfather remembered crossing the river.His brother James Edward Hall was born in MI in 1844 and then my g.grandfather was born in Seneca Co., OH in 1847.
I wonder if you have noticed that there are only two Hall's listed in the 1840 census index for Seneca Co., Ohio??? I've been trying to find where they were in 1840.
I checked GLOREcords this morning and found something quite interesting:
There are listings for Reuben S. Hall from Seneca Co., OH, buying lands in the Toledo-Michigan strip, and William Hall from Seneca Co., Ohio buying land on the same day, same S/T/R.At the Monroe, MI land office. Monroe is where James Edward was born in 1844.
These lands were bought in 1839 and are in what is now Lucas Co., Ohio.If you remember there was a short war between MI and OH over the Toledo-Michigan strip for possession of the lands and Ohio won.
The land record shows that the families of William and Reuben may have left Seneca Co. around 1838. Note that there is a land deed in Seneca Co., 1838, signed by William and Elizabeth Hall. Reuben S. Hall is found in Lenawee Co., MI in the 1840 census, which is the county in MI across the Ohio border.
I believe that the Hall's were in MI for only a few years, possibly 1838 to around 1844/1845 or so, and then may have moved back to Seneca Co., OH, where they are found in 1850 census records.
Lucy, do you know, was part of Fulton Co., Lucas Co. at one time? I haven't looked that up yet.
Anyway, I thought I would share this and see what you think about it.

Lucy,

Would you believe "Hello Cousin" (from my husband? My husband is Scott SZABO, son of Margaret Ann ROBASSER & Stephen Louis SZABO, Margaret Ann is the daughter of Opal FLEMING & Frank ROBASSER, Opal is the daughter of Frances Estella HALL & William G. FLEMING, Frances is the daughter of Lydia KEENE/KEEN & David Schuyler HALL, David is the son of Almira WHEATON & Reuban S. HALL. David HALL's youngest sister Rebecca HALL married Horatio SLOAN (Jana's ancestor). I took classes from Jana several years ago in genealogy (which is how I got started) & since she used examples of records from her own family in teaching the classes I realized from some of the info that my mother-in-law had given our older son when he needed it for a high school project that Jana & my husband were connected. The Fulton County Chapter took a bus to Mansfield to the OGS library last week & I spent most of my time looking for (& finding some) info on the HALL's & WHEATON's. Such a small world! I just wish that I could get credit for proving my husband's line back for First Families of Ohio as I found info indicating a marriage in 1820 in Coshocton County for Almira & Reuban.

As to Jana - she resigned this June as president of our chapter (all our offices are now 2 year terms) due to her commitments as Trustee for OGS & also recently being elected to a state office in Indiana. She has also been getting a lot more speaking engagements at various genealogy workshops & conferences & wants to focus on that. She still manages to keep a finger in what's going on with our chapter though.

I have found in doing genealogy more connections to people, it's one of the things that makes it so much fun!

Hello Lucy-
My name is Kate and I was given your address from Steven Kamm. I had found some of his research online and he had forwarded his report to me. I am a descendant of Anson Hall-son of Almira Wheaton and James Hall. I was just wondering if you had any additional information regarding James Hall or his wife that you would be willing to share. My grandfather told me that Reuben S. had a brother Samuel and a sister Sarah, but I have been unable to confirm that anywhere. I have only been researching my family tree for about a year, so I would be grateful for any assistance!
Thanks so much-

Hello Lucy_
It was great to get your email. Thanks so much for responding. It's so cute that Sarah married Almiras brother! Doesn't it just make you wonder who met who first? I would love any information that you may have on Almira Wheatons family. My address is:
Kate Robertson
126 Bushendorf Road

I would be happy to send you the information I have on Anson Halls line. I'll try to send it via email this weekend when my husband is home to do it for me! If I'm unable to, I'll send you a note to get your mailing address. My grandfather had thought the Halls were from Wales. Any idea if that is correct?
Thanks again for getting back to me. It has been such a pleasure meeting people online with this project. Everyone is so helpful!
Take care

Subject: Holmes Co, Hall deeds

Lucy and Sue,
I have checked some of the deed records for Holmes County, and found the following deed records:

Joseph Sheely to Reuben S. Hall, Mar 23,1818 (this was transcribed from Coshocton)
witnesses:Peter Casey and James Hall

Jacob Wolgamot to James Hall, Mar 17, 1818 (again transcrobed from Coshocton) witnesses:Peter and Rebecca Casey

James Hall to William Hall, Jan 3, 1824
witnesses:R. Wheaton and Abagail Wheaton

Williams Hall to Jonathan Wolgamot, Jan 17, 1824
witnesses: Lawson ??? and J. Fairchild

I have made copies of these and will send them to you. It looks like there was a lot of activity in volume 8 of the deed books, which covers the years 1840-42. I have ordered the microfilm for that volume, and will take a look. There were also some Hall deeds recorded in volume 2, but I think they are unrelated. They were for heirs of Capt. Stephen Hall, who served in the revolution, namely Randolph, Valerius, and grandson Stephen Hall.

I am still awaiting a response on my other requests for info. I'll keep you posted if I hear anything.

Bears and Indians in Defiance County

In an interview in 1932, J.D. (Dan) Hall recalled his early life in Defiance County. Hall, who was 84 at the time of the interview, related his adventures with bears and Indians during his life as a pioneer of Defiance County.

Hall moved from Seneca County to Defiance in 1853. He remembered fording the Maumee River at the present site of the Clinton Street bridge.

Hall's farm was located approximately 10 miles southeast of Defiance in Highland Township. Grocery buying involved walking the 10 miles into Defiance on trails — there were no roads back then. His eggs that he brought with him were sold for six cents a dozen. On the way back to his home he was always careful to stay on the trails since it was so easy to get lost in the immense forest.

Hall stated it was difficult for the average person to imagine the extent and the beauty of the wilderness in the 1800s. Later in his life he regretted the burning of the huge sugar maple, beech and white oak logs. He thought it had been very wasteful.

Some of the tales that he told about pioneer times involved the men who drove herds of hogs that numbered in the hundreds. These hogs were allowed to live in the forest and feed on the mast, which was the nuts dropped by oak, hickory and chestnut trees.

Hall said that the flesh of the hogs that fed on mast was oily and soft. So the animals had to be fed corn for a time to develop a better-tasting meat before they were sent to market.

The hog drovers often had their own adventures with the black bears that inhabited this area. Hall told of a bear that dropped a pig that it had snatched and grabbed a drover. Fortunately a passerby came by and rescued the drover, but not before the drover had lost a thumb to the bear.

Hall also related the story of two hunters who had come to the Black Swamp to hunt bears. The hunters built a roaring fire from hickory bark and then went to sleep beside the fire. One of the hunter's clothes caught on fire and the poor man burned to death.

There were still quite a few Indians living in this area at that time. Hall mentioned a particularly unusual character called Indian Jack. Indian Jack made an excellent living by selling a special salve known for curing running sores. Indian Jack sold his salve to both white and Indian men.

Hall and his son, Ben F., raised hogs on their land. They owned 200 acres of virgin timber and 150 acres of cleared land on which they grew corn. Even though Hall had many entertaining stories to tell about his days as a pioneer, the danger and the back-breaking work of farming in the Black Swamp was never far from his thoughts.

HALL FAMILY

Ruth O. (Hall) Simon and husband, James Simon live on her (great-grandfather) John Hall's farm in Highland Township, Sec. 18, Defiance County, Ohio, consisting of 93 acres which has been Hall estate for over 100 years. They also own a second farm of 80 acres in Sec. 28, Highland Township, that has been Hall estate for over 100 years.

John Hall and wife (Lydia) came to Defiance County to this farm around the year 1851, cutting the trees to clear the way from near Detroit, Michigan. He was born August 13, 1823 at Millersburg, Holmes County, Ohio. He was married to Lydia Franklin Bills, June 19, 1843, and on June 19, 1893 they celebrated their Golden Wedding.

To this union were born 10 children: Athelbert, Altha, Sarah J., Charity E. (Shepler), Mary A. (Porter), Alice (Willet), Edward J. Hall, Joshua D. Hall, John P. Hall and Charles P. Hall. Of these, only two sons, Edward J. and Joshua D. remained to live in Defiance County.

The John Halls came to this farm cutting the timber along the way to make a settlement. The first house was built of logs just a few feet east of the house now standing where Ruth and James live. This second house was built in 1872. A smoke house for meat was back of the log house. Ben Hall, son of Joshue D. Hall, told Ruth one night Great-Grandfather heard a noise in the smokehouse. He went out there and found two negroes in the house. He tried to hold the door shut on them and sent his son Edward J. Hall to bring a long handled fire shovel to hit them over the head with, but before Edward arrived they got away. There was a settlement of negroes north of this home.

John Hall's first wife Lydia (Franklin) Bills died on March 17, 1900. Lydia was of French descent, a descendant of the Franklin family, Benjamin Franklin being her great uncle.

Then on May 18, 1903, John married Mrs. Juliaett Finn. John died on July 16, 1907, buried in Myers Cemetery, Highland Township. Then Juliaett went to live with her son Edward (from her former marriage to J. J. Finn).

James Elmer Hall (always called Elmer) made many friends along in life as he was quite a witty, joking, conversationalist. During his life, he and his wife Rosa remodeled the home as needed. Elmer always had lots of boys as hired hands, of whom he was especially fond. Also, their daughter Ruth always helped with the chores and farm upkeep. Rosa's health was frail, but one would not know it at all by the work she accomplished. She died of a bad heart October 26, 1935, age 59 years. Cows and pigs were kept on the farm for years. Rosa always said the cows helped in depression times. Elmer served on the Highland Township School board several years.

On August 30, 1958 Elmer had a car accident in which he eventually lost a leg and was in a wheel chair 10 years during which time his daughter Ruth and husband James Simon lived in the home and cared for him until his death, November 21, 1968. He was buried beside his wife in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Putnam County, Ohio.

Elmer had attended the Hall school which was on the corner of his father's farm. It was brick and later a new frame one was built. Both school houses are now demolished.

Elmer's grandfather on his mother's side (Ike Weiker) drove a yoke of oxen hitched to a covered wagon when they first settled in Ohio, lived under a tree until the home was built near Lodi, Ohio. The Mad River Railroad, first iron railroad in Ohio, cut through the farm. Ruth (Hall) Simon still has a brick from the house, built in 1853 and a spike from the railroad as a memory of the farm.

Ruth (Hall) Simon has lived on this John Hall farm since her birth in 1910. On September 5, 1931, she married Vernon Burdette Shumaker and to this union was born one son Cleon LaVon Shumaker. On November 12, 1942, this marriage was broken and Ruth and her son, Cleon, continued to live with her father, Elmer, who was alone after the death of his wife.

Then on July 27, 1951, Ruth married James Simon of Continental, Ohio, who had two children from his former wife (Allie Shirley) of Kalida, Ohio, Clifford James Simon and Trudy Paullette Simon. (Ruth and James were married at First Christian Church in Ft. Wayne, Indiana.) Clifford served in the Korean War at this time, but made his home here until his marriage. Trudy's home also was with her father James and wife Ruth until her marriage. Trudy, Clifford and Cleon have all been dear children to us.

James and Ruth remodeled several of outdoor buildings and barn and tilled some of the fields while living with Elmer Hall. James worked at Zeller's plant in Defiance from 1945 to 1958 and also farmed.

Since my father Elmer's death, we have owned the two farms and have remodeled the house, lowering all ceilings and put in new stair enclosure to replace the old antique door with iron latch and put a bathroom in. Ruth and James have numerous antiques; one of them a cherry dresser set which Rosa Hall worked out as a girl and bought for $2.00 per week and paid $14.00 for the outfit, also a handmade secretary made by a Mr. Smith of Highland Township. Wide board floors still bring the antique part out in the upstairs of the home.

Ruth and James Simon are members of the First Presbyterian Church, Defiance, Ohio, since the dismantling and breaking up of the little old Highland Church near their home. Ruth had attended Wiler school near her home for eight years, two years at Highland Center High Scool, and two years at Defiance High School, from where she received her diploma. James received his education from Cleveland schools and served in the U.S. Army Company B., 2nd Engineers, 12 years, 1919 to 1931. He was discharged with excellent rating as a sergeant. James and Ruth now have retired, but keep busy repairing and odd jobs on farm and still have a few cows and chickens.

Cleon LaVon Shumaker was born to Ruth and Vernon Shumaker, June 5, 1935. He married Shirley Moore, daughter of Richard and Marguarite (Harader) Moore on December 12, 1953 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Defiance, Ohio. Hello Lucy, If by chance, you can't open the previously sent file, which you probably cannot. Here are instructions for the PAF. Go to the website for the LDS church familysearch.org Then at the top, click on order/download products, next page click software downloads free, then where it lists Personal Ancestral File 5.2 Multilanguage, click on the download button. This should download the PAF program into your hard drive. Once this is in your system, the attachment I sent should come up on your computer. You don't have to keep the PAF on your computer after downloading the file. I just use this program for convenience.

I am just now getting back into research after having left it for several years. I started research in 1974. So, I noticed that since I put my data into the computer, I have not been too good in putting in the sources. I need to review my files and input the sources, such as census, bible, and land records that I got info. from. Please be patient while I do this. I will update you when this is completed. But, I thought you would at least like the main information now. Jan

Jonathan L. Wheaton was one of thirteen children born to William & Sarah Hall Wheaton, of German extraction(this is a questionable statement re German extraction). His birth occurred in Prairie Twp.,Holmes Co., OH., on the 16th day of May, 1827. After receiving a common school education, he, at the age of 20 yrs., began life for himself, in the occupation of farming in Seneca Co., his native state, where he remained for several yrs. Subsequently, he removed to Wood Co, until at the breaking out of the War. He enlisted in Co. K, 84th Reg. Oh. Vol. Infantry for the 3 month's service. He entered the Army in May 1862 & while on duty on a platform which ran from a railroad grade to the door of a second story building, was terribly injured. The platform gave way, & he was hurt in his lt. hip, his breast & head so severely that a hemmorhage of the lungs set in. He received his homorable discharge on Sept. 20, 1862. In 1881, he had the misfortune to lose the use of his voice, & Oct. 14, 1885, had a stroke of paralysis, the result of injuries received by the giving away & fall of the platform. Mr. Wheaton is an aggressive Republican, fully alive to the interests of his party. For two yrs. he has served as the constable of Crane Twp., & while a resident of Wood co., held the position for 25 yrs, which is much to his credit. He located his property in this co. in 1863, moving on it in 1876, where he has ever since abided, as one of the old & honored residents. At present he owns 40 acres of good land, 30 of which are under cultivation. By marriage on Aug. 24, 1851, Mr. Wheaton became the father of 6 chn., namely: Sarah C. (deceased), William J., George W., Phoebe A., Anise S. (deceased), & James E. The family are members of the Methodist Church. By reason of injuries received & his services rendered the country in its time of great need, Mr. Wheaton at this time draws a pension.

According to Alvin Yaney: Lavon did not have any children, but his wife Zoa was previously married to a Pappas and had a son named Perry, who was adopted by LaVon. Perry is a professor of physics at the University of Dayton. He was born 29 July 1933. His wife's name is Mary and they have three chn: Anastasis, Alexander, and Felicia. They live in Dayton,OH. Letter from Oliver to Bob Evans 31 Mar. 1991:"I do not know where my mother was born. I evidently was mistaken for thinking she had been buried in the French Cemetery in Stryker. The care taker there says there is no record of her burial in that cemetery. She may have been buried in Swanton, Fulton , OH. or maybe taken back to Sherwood, Defiance, OH. I do not know the name of her parents. She had a brother "Elmer" who I visited once when I was a child. she also had another brother or half-brother and if I remember correctly was called "Tim". She had a sister or half-sister named "Jeannette". I am not positive about the half-brother or half-sister. They could have been full brothers and sisters. The sister named Jeannette, Leland and I called Nettie because I guess that was a nickname for her. She is the one that raised Leland after mother passed away. I have a picture of her with two of Alvin Yaney's children, Randy and David, and another photo of her tombstone showing the date of birth as 1874. She was first married to John Roush. After comparing her birthdate with the date on the head stone of the Uncle Elmer that I knew there is a ten year difference. Maybe Jeannette and Tim were half brothers and sisters. This Uncle Elmer was a telegraph operator for the B & O railroad at a signal tower a few miles west of Sherwood, OH. This is all I can think of in conneciton with the Wheaton family, wish I knew more. My mother and father were married in Defiance, Defiance,OH on 15 Aug. 1908. Mother died 21 Feb. 1913, Swanton, OH. Just found in an old photo album, an obituary of my mother, Lulu Mae Wheaton. She was born 10 Aug. 1890 at Sherwood, OH. She was the daughter of Mr. Anson Wheaton. She leaves to mourn, a husband, two sons, a father and mother, three sisters and five brothers. Janet Elaine Yaney Selbe talked to Oliver in 1986. Oliver was born in Sherwood, Defiance Co.,OH. and his mother died 21 Feb 1913 from the birth of a baby daughter named Elizabeth, born 8 Feb. 1913 in Swanton, OH. Both were buried in Stryker, OH. Oliver was only four and his brother Leland was a year and one-half. He was placed with his father's mother and brother Leland was placed with his mother's half-sister. Oliver lived with his grandmother until he was about ten or eleven years old, when his father remarried. He lived with him until 1928 when he married Florine Bolman. They lived in Toledo during the time the marriage lasted. Oliver moved to Columbus and worked several years in the Ohio Capitol Building, employed by the House of Representatives and later the Ohio Senate." "During this time I discovered I wasn't as smart as I thought I was, so I decided to go back to school. This I did and became an accountant. After the political climate changed in the House, I went to work as an accountant for two more years in Columbus. After two years in Chicago, I moved to Dayton, OH and went to work for the American Lubricants Co. and stayed their until 31 Dec. 1973. I began as an Accountant and retired as vice-President and Treasurer." "We moved to Ft. Lauderdale, FL and lived there until 1980, when we decided to move to a smaller city, Ocala, FL." Family does not know his whereabouts or if he is living. this would be late 1939, probably October or November. A Virgie Crawford disappeared at the same time. He had two daughters with 1st marriage and divorced..a letter written 31 Mar. 1991 by Olive L. Yaney to me:" Leland Charles Yaney, b. 29 Mar. 1911, Stryker, Williams, OH. He was my brother, but when we were children we lived too far from each other to be able to visit back and forth. My grandmother, Amelia Peugeot Yaney, was very poor and I suppose Uncle John and Nettie Roush were the same, so there just was not enough money for trolley and train fare between Stryker and Sheroowd, OH. The last time I remember seeing him was in the early 1930's. At that time he was married to Rosie Sylvester and had only two children. The next I remember he was married to Marguerite Brown and living in Texas. I thought it was Rice, TX but I am not sure. The next that I remmber hearing about him was that he had run away with a young girl from that town and went to California.(True or not)? That he had gone to Ventura, CA and put the bite on our Aunt Velma Michaels for money. Never another word since. I have tried to get Alvin to question his mother but she has evidently tried to block out or forgotten the details or maybe just don't want him t know."

Lucy,
Edward F. Bills married Elizabeth Morris in 1860 in Seneca Co., Ohio. This is the one who went to Koskiusko Co., IN and is found there in 1870.
I did not have the 1880 census record but this may be the same Edward. I'm not sure because of the 1862 gaurdianship record in IN.
Thanks Lucy. This 1880 census record is a big help.
My daughter is home from Columbus today and we are going to Lima shopping this afternoon. She needs shoes for a wedding she is going to be in this month. We were up till 3 this morning chatting. I can't take those late hours. I am soooo tired today.
Sue
Ps. I just found this in my files.
Defiance County, Ohio, land records show that Edward F. Bills and wife bought the southeast 1/4 of Section 17 in Highland Twp. (T3 R5) on March 4, 1859. This property later was sold to John Wiler and wife and then to PH. Mentley on Nov. 6, 1872. Mentley's married into the James Edward Hall family a brother to JD Hall. JD bought his land in 1871.

The birth records of Defiance Co., Ohio show a child born to Edward Hall and Ann Ira. In 1900 they were living by the Hall's in Highland Twp. in Defiance Co., Ohio.

1870 Koskiusko Co. Census. He married in 1860.

Subject: Re: Another Bills tidbit

Lucy, Your e-mail came in after I sent the other message.
Francis Bills may have been the same person. I don't know.
I can't tell you that he is but this Francis is about the right age.
I just have bits and pieces of Bills information.
Benjamin Franklin Bills died in 1849 in Delaware Co., Ohio and I think he was the father of Nelson, Edward, Joshua Daniel, Charity and Lydia Bills.
There is an administation of estate record in Delaware Co., for BF Bills but it doesn't name his children. Lydia Bills was born in Jefferson Co., Ohio. Her mother was Charity.
There is an Edward Bills who was married in Defiance Co. to an Onstott and another Edward Bills who moved to Kent co., MI.
There was a Nelson Bills who bought land in 1833 in Seneca Co. too early to have been our Nelson Bills.
The Whitley Co., Indiana Bills were very likely to have been related to Nelson also.

I have a note: Francis Alonzo Bills married 3 Dec. 1875 in Fulton co. OH. Idie H. Davis -Vol. 3 pg. 489 Fulton Co.OH. Is this a different Bills or possibly our Francis? He would be about the right age to marry in 1875.

Subject: Samuel Hall

Lucy,
One of my Hall's was Mary Ann Hall. She married Frederick Dutton Porter in Defiance in 1853.
Her father was John Hall son of William Hall. I have an obituary that was in my grandmother's Bible for Frederick Porter. He died in Holdredge, Franklin Co., Nebraska.
I was looking through the 1880 census tonight and found Mary Ann living in Nebraska. The reason I think this is interesting is because living right beside her is Samuel Hall who married Mary Barbara Harmon.
Samuel was the son of William Hall and Emily Moss.
He married in Dekalb Co., Indiana in 1878.
The Samuel Hall buried in Paulding Co. I think was one of the Halls from the Allen Co., Ohio Halls. I have them in another line.
I've been trying to find out what happened to Samuel Hall and I think this is him.
What do you think?
Sue

p.853. Dr. Charles E. Hall's ancestry.

John Hall (fifer) and his brother Stephen Hall Sr. of Warwick were privates from Orange County and prisoners in the Sugar House during the Revolutionary War. Both were Revolutionary War pensioners. Their pension papers give their birthplace as Peekskill, N. Y. The late W. I. Hall of Monroe said his grandfather, the above Stephen Hall, was son of Reuben Hall. Orange County deeds show Reuben Hall's wife was Sarah about 1792. According to another descendant she was Sarah Gray. Caleb Hall, b. Attleboro, Mass. 1700, d. Peekskill 1791 and wife Jane Daggert had son Reuben, b. Attleboro 1729/30. Caleb was descended from the first Christopher and Sarah Hall of Groton, Mass. His parents were Christopher Hall and Mary Homer.

Lyman Hall had no Hall descendants.

Hello Lucy, Sorry to bother you again. But, for some reason James Hall, my 3rd Gr. grandfather, born 1765 in New Jersey has been on my mind lately. Could you please tell me where you got the information for him?
I have been working very hard on my English lines in the past few months and have had great success; doubling my computer programme with all the names. But, I must not forget the U.S. side of my family. Hence, this message to you. Thank you, Janet Doi
